

History Lesson

Welcome
Students!

Today's Agenda

Write the agenda in bullet points

List topics to be covered

Write the activities you will be doing

Give the allotted time for each

Add extra guidelines if there are any

Class Objectives and Rules

Objectives inform students of the learning outcomes of the class. What will they know? What will they be able to do? Why is this important to know? It's an effective way to assess their learning progress.

Rules provide the structure necessary for an engaging and productive class. Keep it simple and easy to follow. It can be generalized to cover different situations or very specific to your students.

Examples

Example 1

Elaborate on the concepts with examples.
Duplicate this page as many times as needed.

Example 2

Elaborate on the concepts with examples.
Duplicate this page as many times as needed.

Example 3

Elaborate on the concepts with examples.
Duplicate this page as many times as needed.

Open Discussion

Question

Take the lesson further by talking about concepts and definitions. Duplicate this page as many times as needed.

Question

Take the lesson further by talking about concepts and definitions. Duplicate this page as many times as needed.

Question

Take the lesson further by talking about concepts and definitions. Duplicate this page as many times as needed.

Is everything clear?

Exercise

Add instructions or guidelines here.
You can also put in the amount of time allotted for this.

Individual exercises extend a student's grasp of the lesson. It allows them to synthesize on their own and think of ways they can apply their new learnings in real life. Duplicate this page as many times as needed to give you more space for discussion.

Class Recap

Duplicate this page as many times as needed to give you more space for discussion.

Discussion Point

Cap off a productive class with key summary points
students can easily remember.

Discussion Point

You can provide this for the class as a way of wrapping up everything you've discussed.

Discussion Point

Recaps can also be led by students for a more enriching experience.

Thank you

